

John Doyle Soccer Half Day Camp 2017

JDS camps will run half day camps for players ages 5-12 years old. These clinics will take place from June until August 2017. The half day camps are clinics designed to focus on individual soccer skills while creating a passion for the game. The week long camp will cover dribbling, passing, receiving, defending and striking skills in soccer. These skills will be taught through the use of various drills, games and soccer specific training. All sessions will be held at the Mustang soccer complex located in Danville. The program is staffed by licensed soccer professionals.
